

Diabetic RetinaScreen Project

2025

RESULTS

- People said that having information and knowledge about diabetes care was important to them.
- About 75% of people contacted had already registered for screening.
- Literacy was stated as the main challenge to register and attend appointments e.g. suggest using symbols rather than the alphabet to test eyesight.