

Rapid Response Corps Employer Agreement Form HR 116 (a)

HSE HR Circular 17/2008

Please complete in Block Capitals/Tick appropriate boxes

Employee Details
Surname	First Name
Grade	Personnel Number
Location	PPS Number
Position Name	Position Number
I have been informed by my employee, named above, that s/he has applied to join Irish Aid's Rapid Response Corps and that s/he has been shortlisted and invited to interview by Irish Aid. I have read the contents of the "Employee Information Sheet" overleaf. If selected, I accept that my employee may be invited by Irish Aid to be deployed to humanitarian agencies, at short notice and for periods of 3 months, to support their emergency relief operations. I attest that I will be in a position to confirm their availability, and when possible, authorise their release.
Line Manager Details
Name (Capitals)	Grade
Signature	Date
Contact Phone No:	Mobile No:
E-mail Address

Rapid Response Corps Employee Information Sheet

Deployment with the Rapid Response Corps (RRC)

The Department of Foreign Affairs has established a Rapid Response Corps of skilled and experienced volunteers who are available at short notice and for periods of at least 3 months to deploy to humanitarian emergencies anywhere in the world.

Employees who are participating in the RRC may be released for a maximum of 3 months with pay.

Further information relating to the RRC can be obtained on www.irishaid.gov.ie or e-mail rri@dfa.ie or telephone 061 774008 or 061 774152.

Applicants for the RRC who are shortlisted and invited to interview by Irish Aid are required to submit the Employer Agreement Form to their Department Head for completion (attached).