Section 1B: Your residency status

To be eligible for the Long Term Illness Scheme, you must satisfy to the Health Service Executive (HSE) that you are ‘ordinarily resident’. This means that you (and your family) are living in Ireland and intend to live here for at least one year.

If it is the case that the person with the LTI (Long Term Illness) condition is a child under 18 years of age, you need to provide evidence of residency for the parent or legal guardian.

Are you ordinarily resident? Yes □ No □

How long have you lived in Ireland?

Are you?

□ Irish □ From the EU, EEA or Switzerland

□ Not from the EU, EEA or Switzerland

To prove that you are ordinarily resident in Ireland, you will need to give the HSE a photocopy of one of the items listed below:

1. A current utility bill dated within the last three months, for example, a gas, electricity or phone bill.
2. A current car or home insurance policy in the name of the applicant.
3. An official document from a Government Department, Revenue or local authority. For example a notice of assessment from Revenue, proof of rent from the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) or county council.
4. Recent correspondence from a bank, building society, credit union or other financial institution. For example, a bank statement or credit card statement.

If you ticked the box saying that you were not from the EU, the EEA or Switzerland, you must also give us a photocopy of all of the following three items.

1. The identification page from your passport.
2. The landing stamp page from your passport.
3. Your Irish Residence Permit (IRP).
