Help and information

Who can apply for a Medical Card in this scheme?

The parent or guardian of a child who:

- has been diagnosed with cancer in the past five years;
- is under 18 years of age; and
- lives in the Republic of Ireland and intends to live here for at least one year. ('Ordinarily resident')

If I my child gets a Medical Card, does it cover my family too?

No. Medical Card eligibility is granted only to the named child under 18 years, with a diagnosis of cancer.

My child is almost 18. Will I still apply?

If your child is nearing their 18th birthday and has a diagnosis of cancer, you may apply for a Medical Card for your child.
